

International Shipping

We ship internationally to the countries below, but this may change without notice due to conditions occurring internationally. Some brands may not allow international shipping. Check here for international service alerts from USPS: about.usps.com/newsroom/service-alerts/international/welcome.htm

You may also check international shipping availability in your dispensary by beginning to put through an international order. This will also show pricing for the various available shipping options.
